A Street Car Diversion.

A tirret Car Diversion.

The passengers on a Benwood street car had coneiderable amusement yesterday afternoon, watching the conductor deal with an obstreperous passenger, a farmer from Marshal county, who had looked too long on the flowing bowl. After he was ejected, the farmer kept tugging at the car, only to be pushed back by the conductor. Finally, a strong show sent him whirling backward, and he wank to mother earth. Itsing to his feet he yelled out "Hooray!" at the retreating car.

FESTIVE FIRECRACKER FIZZES

A NOISY FOURTH

And Explodes with the Same Amount of Racket They Made when Former Gen erations of Patriotic Youth Burned Pingers and Put Out Eyes in Their Enthusm-Programmes at the Parks To-day. Bellaire Has a Hig Celebration.

The "Glorious Fourth" falling on Sun

The "Giorious Fourth" falling on Sunday this year and, in consequence, being more or less observed and celebrated on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the average small boy is in his giory through anticipation of such an extended period of the "fizz-boom" style of existence.

At midnight the festive firecracker began to be heard, and in a few minutes there was quite a fusilade all along the streets in the business portion of the city, many having stayed up to show at one and the same time their patriotism and their enjoyment of the time-honored custom of making a "racket" every Fourth. Even so early this morning there was a case of burned fingers—an inseparable incident of independence Day celebrations—and more will of course follow to-day.

A dealer in fireworks was asked last night relative to the demand here this year for goods in his line, and stated that he has sold more firecrackers, cannen-crackers, fireworks, etc., than in any recent year. This would indicate that the Fourth will be celebrated long and noisily. There is also an unusually heavy demand for American flags and bunting, which would justify the anticipation that there will be a general observance of the day in decorations on business houses, residents and other buildings.

Here in Wheeling there is no public celebration of the day. At the two parks there will be holiday programmes, as usual, and they will no doubt draw immense crowds. On Monday, at Mozart Park, there will be a $500 display of fireworks.

Rellaire will celebrate manner, a programme covering the entire day, having been prepared. Excursions are to be run to the town from points in interior Ohio.

IMMENSE CROWDS

Will Go to Mozart Park To-day Monster Picnic will be the Attraction—Attrac-tions for Smaday and Monday. To-day's crowd will break the record at Mozart Park, for from present indi-cations the attendance will be the heaviest in the history of the park. Hun-dreds of families are getting their "basdreds of families are getting their "bas-kets" ready and will go early to spend the entire day. Meister's orchestra will play from 2 p. m. until 12 for those wish-ing to dance. The incline will run from 3 in the morning, making a trip every three minutes and the reasonable charge of ten cents for adults and five cents for children makes this park desirable for large families to so to, as the entire ex-pense will be small.

pense will be small.

Attractions have been arranged for Sunday and Monday in order to give every one a chance to celebrate the Fourth at Mozart park. Sunday's card will consist of concerts in the afternoon and evening, and new pictures by the cinegraph. A $500 display of fireworks will attract big crowds on Monday evening, and in addition there will be dancing all day.

AT THE RESCUE HOME.

Entertainment and Lecture by Mrs. M. L. Wells Last Night.

Last evening, at the Rescue Home on North Market street, an entertainment was given, together with a lecture by Mrs. M. L. Wells, of Chattanooga, Tenn. who is visiting friends here. The violin solo by Master Henry Weller was the opening number on the programme and pleased the large audience. Rev. Dr. D. A. Cunningham, of the First Presbyterian church, opened with a prayer. The Misses Spell then gave an instrumental duet on the plano. Miss Ruth Hall's vocal solo, "Emanuel," was a triumph for this young artiste. Mrs. Wells then addressed the audience on "Mother's Meetings," which was listened to with great interest by the audience. Miss Linde had a contraito solo and Master Weller another violin solo, after which a silver offering was taken up. who is visiting friends here. The violin
